R. C. COWAN ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY

Has Served as District Attorney For Eighteen Years—Asks To Be Re-Elected

R. C. (Cliff) Cowan of Gulfport has formally announced that he is a candidate for re-election as district attorney, subject to the August Democratic primaries. The district is comprised of Harrison, Hancock, Jackson, Stone and George counties.

Mr. Cowan needs no introduction to the voters of the Second Judicial District. He has served them for many years as their district attorney.

Mr. Cowan is a native of Harrison County, spent his boyhood in the adjoining county of Jackson, and attended the public schools of Jackson county, the Mississippi A. & M. College and the University of Mississippi. In the year that he graduated from the law school of the University of Mississippi, he was elected to the legislature as a floater representative of Jackson and Harrison counties, and served with distinction. He served two terms as county prosecuting attorney of Harrison county and in 1919 was elected District Attorney of the Second Judicial District, comprising the counties of Jackson, Harrison, Hancock, George and Stone. After serving two full terms, he declined to be a candidate for re-election. In 1933 when W. M. Colmer resigned the office of district attorney, he became a member of the Congress.

Mr. Cowan became a district attorney, and was elected by an overwhelming majority, and since that time has been re-elected without opposition in the primaries of 1935 and 1939. Mr. Cowan has served as member of the State Democratic Executive Committee, on many important committees of the State Bar Association, and is a past president of the Harrison County Bar Association. He has given freely of his time and talents in promoting the civic welfare of his community, county and state, and has contributed liberally to humanity—serving charitable institutions; he is now serving as the Harrison county member of the committee on war work of the Mississippi State Bar, giving his services in advising men in the armed forces and their families on legal and financial questions growing directly out of leaving civilian life and entering the armed forces of the United States.

Mr. Cowan states that in his opinion it is not only the duty of the district attorney to appear in the circuit court and prosecute for the state all criminal cases, as required by law, but that it is also the duty of the district attorney not to violate the laws of the state; that, as provided by law, "The district attorney shall attend the deliberations of the grand jury whenever he may be required by the grand jury, shall give necessary information as to the law governing each case, in order that same may be presented in the manner required by law." But he says he does not believe that any district attorney has the right to assume or usurp the functions and powers of the grand jury in the matter of returning indictments; that the district attorney has no right or authority to usurp the duties and responsibilities of the sheriff of the county; that any district attorney who assumes to act as sheriff, police officer and detective in the enforcement of the criminal laws of the state not only destroys the usefulness of his office, but himself becomes a law violator.

Mr. Cowan believes, however, that it is as much the duty of the district attorney to protect the innocent as it is his duty to prosecute the guilty, and that every defendant is entitled to a fair and impartial trial as provided for by the constitution and laws of the state and that in cases where the evidence is not sufficient to convict a defendant, or to justify a trial before a jury, the district attorney should have the moral courage to make such facts known to the judge of the circuit court.

Mr. Cowan's experience and ability as a lawyer in both civil and criminal cases and his success before the State Supreme Court is testimony to his ability and his honesty and fairness in the discharge of his official duties.

Mr. Cowan stated that he has been busy engaged in the holding of a term of court and that another term of court is scheduled to be held in his district during this month, and that it will be impossible for him to see all the voters of the district before the primary election of August 3, but that it is his desire to express his appreciation of their

SURPRISE TEST BLACK-OUT CALLED FOR COAST AREA

A surprise blackout was called on the Mississippi Coast Tuesday night and local civilian defense officials today expressed general satisfaction with the results although there were instances of unattended lights left burning in business and residential districts.

The officials renewed their warning that outside switches should be installed immediately in business places where night lights are left illuminated and cautioned residents against unattended lights in their homes at any time.

It was emphasized anew that future blackouts—like the last test—will be called without advance public announcement and the Mississippi Coast should be prepared for any emergency.

Sirens and other warnings, sounding the first "blue" signal, came shortly before 9 o'clock, followed by the second "blue" about ten minutes later. The second "blue" came about 9:25 and the all-clear at 9:40.

Some violations were reported by air raid wardens in Bay St. Louis, but generally the cooperation of the public was satisfactory, it was stated.

OCD officials said in cases where violations were reported affidavits will be issued for court appearances. As a whole, the county blacked out well on the first audible signal and remained so until the all-clear signal sounded.

Civilian defense auxiliaries mobilized in short order after the first reports were received.

Outlying sections also responded generally.

DEATH OF COUSIN

Mrs. Theo. Padury received news this week of the death of her cousin, Lieut. David A. King who died a prisoner of the Japs. Lieut. King was with General MacArthur at Bataan and was reported missing in action. No word having been heard of him since, until notified through the Red Cross by the war department of his death.

LUTHER MAPLES ANNOUNCES

For District Attorney—Well Known Gulfport Lawyer Has Had Vast Experience In Law Enforcement—Issues Statement

Luther Maples, Gulfport Lawyer, has formally announced his candidacy for District Attorney. He is well known to the majority of the voters in the five counties of George, Harrison, Stone, Jackson and Hancock, composing the district which he seeks to serve.

Mr. Maples was a member of the Mississippi Legislature, representing George County, at the outbreak of World War I. He resigned from the State Legislature to enlist in the army in May, 1917. He spent nine months in France, returning from overseas in 1919. Discharged from the army July 2, 1919, he began the practice of law in Gulfport in October of the same year, and was for four years County Prosecuting Attorney of Harrison County, from 1924 to 1928.

He is a graduate of the academic department of Mississippi College, and of the law school of the University of Mississippi, is a practicing attorney of a number of years experience, was County Prosecuting Attorney of Harrison County for four years and has had several years employment by the Federal Government in the enforcement of the laws of the United States.

He has been in American Legion work from the beginning of this organization, and has had wide experience in this field. During his tenure of office as local Post Commander, State Commander, and as a member of numerous State and National Committees, as well as during his years of legal work in behalf of disabled Veterans, he promoted both State and National Legislation for their benefit, and did extensive rehabilitation work in their behalf over the State and Coast District, personally and in co-operation with the Veterans Bureau, the Veterans Administration of Gulfport, and the Veterans Facility of Biloxi.

"There are strong indications," states Mr. Maples, "that the present war will soon be over. Then there will come those days of reconstruction, with all their problems. If we are to keep faith with our boys in the hard won peace, the Law, which is the will of the people, must be enforced without fear or favor."

In stating the policies that he would follow if elected, he said that he would adhere strictly to the duties of the office as outlined by the laws of the State, as well as by the ethics of the legal profession, in two general classifications, as follows:

"First, the District Attorney is required to appear in the Circuit Court and prosecute all criminal cases in the name of the State. Second, that he shall appear in all of the courts of his district and represent the State, county, or counties in all civil matters in which the State, county, or counties interests may be involved; that he shall not accept employment from any individual partnership or corporations whose interests are considered by the policy of this State to be adverse to that of the best interests of the citizens. It is the clear intention of the law governing the duties of the District Attorney that he shall not accept any employment that would be against the interest of the citizens of his district."

Mr. Maples said that he began early in life to prepare himself to fulfill his ambition to be District Attorney, and that his education, his experience as a practicing attorney and as a Prosecuting Attorney of Harrison County, his special work for the Government, his interests and activities in public education, his service in the American Legion, have all prepared him for the important office of District Attorney. He stated that it has been his observation that all the voters are interested primarily in the qualifications, integrity, and courage of the candidates for the various offices. Therefore, having been born and reared in this district, he invites the citizens of these five counties to inquire into his qualifications and into his public record—to inquire of those who knew him in the army, at home and in France; those who knew him as a Gulf Coast citizen, as a Lawyer and Prosecuting Attorney, and of those who know him as a neighbor and a friend.

He expects to make as thorough a campaign in this district as possible in the brief time between now and the date of the election, but takes occasion, through this announcement, of soliciting the support and influence of everyone.

Victory Gardeners Told Of Danger of Infection

Whether you are doing your agricultural bit on a 5,000-acre farm or in your not-so-big Victory garden, you are urged by the Red Cross First Aid Service to give prompt and proper care to even the slightest injury you may receive.

Especially important, the First Aid Service points out, are precautions to be taken against the possibility of tetanus or lockjaw infection. That is because the tetanus germ, found in manure, is a hardy organism that has the peculiar ability to live in its spore form through heat and cold, rain and drought, winter and summer. It is likely to be anywhere present on the farm and remains for long periods in the soil where manure has been used, waiting only for conditions in which it can germinate.

Such conditions are present in a wound, where there is moisture, warmth, darkness and absence of air. A laceration, in which tissues are torn or otherwise damaged, an abrasion in which the germ is ground into the flesh, or a puncture wound such as is often caused by a nail and which remains closed to the air are particularly favorable to growth of the tetanus germ.

All such injuries should be promptly cared for by a physician, who will take the necessary precautions. If a doctor cannot immediately be reached, first aid care should be given meanwhile.

Other infections are also possible. The dangerous gas bacillus is frequently found in the soil. Some of the pus-forming germs may also be present. Cuts and scratches caused by pruning knife or briar thorns may become infected. For every break in the skin, first aid must be given at once.

Give Usual Care

These minor injuries may safely receive the usual first aid care—paint the surface and surrounding skin with mild tincture of iodine, allow this to dry, and cover with a sterile gauze dressing. Do not attempt to put iodine down into the depths of a puncture wound, and do not squeeze puncture wound in the hope of making them bleed or getting anything out. You will only cause added damage. Let the doctor take the responsibility for anything beyond the simple surface care suggested. And remember to consult your doctor as to the advisability of taking anti-tetanus inoculation.

Mrs. Stella Gex, Hancock County chairman Red Cross surgical dressing unit, announces the opening of three centers in the county—Kiln, Logtown, and Waveland.

Mrs. Sam Whitfield is the chairman for the Logtown center and the room will be open on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Miss Mary B. Favre is the chairman for the Kiln center and the room will be open on Wednesday of each week from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

RUMORS AGAIN

RUMORS, particularly unfounded ones, cause much embarrassment, ill-will and often redound to the detriment of men, and institutions that have served communities faithfully and well.

In these days and times when people should be careful as to their sayings, when the heads of our government are trying to instill into the minds of the American people that loose tongues can cause many heartaches, can cause the loss of many of our boys in service; yet, we find on the other hand people who are prone to repeat and to enlarge upon statements which have absolutely no foundation.

A rumor has been prevalent for the past few weeks in Bay St. Louis that Saint Stanislaus would not accept any Bay St. Louis boys as day students at this institution. How, or why this has come to be said, or to be spread, we are not in a position to say, but we know, and the majority of the people of Bay St. Louis know that this is an absolute falsehood. Saint Stanislaus is a Bay St. Louis institution. Founded many, many years ago. Its educational traditions are un-equalled. It has brought to Bay St. Louis more publicity than all of the money in the county could purchase. It has brought to Bay St. Louis boys who will never forget Stanislaus and its location; in whose memories the institution and the community will ever live.

Saint Stanislaus has been a God send to Bay St. Louis. This institution and Saint Joseph Academy have relieved the tax payers of the City of Bay St. Louis of the payment of many dollars in tax money, that would have been necessary to have been appropriated for the support of our public school system.

We have had occasion to discuss these rumors with Brother Peter, President of Saint Stanislaus. The people of Bay St. Louis know Brother Peter. He has spent more than half of his life in our midst. He personally has advertised Bay St. Louis more than any individual that we know of. He is known throughout the South as one of the greatest authorities on boys' work. He has traveled throughout the country, on invitation, to make addresses before civic clubs and at educational meetings; and, with all of this, the one thought uppermost in the mind of this good man has been Saint Stanislaus and Bay St. Louis. Bay St. Louis is home to him.

Well can we remember, as a child, attending St. Stanislaus, with Brother Peter as a teacher; the thoughts instilled in our minds, thoughts which have led us on through life to accomplish better things. Happy were we when Brother Peter returned to Bay St. Louis following his term as president of Catholic High School at Baton Rouge. We are, indeed, grateful to have him as president of Saint Stanislaus, where our sons attend school, and where they may have inculcated into their minds the true spirit of Saint Stanislaus: SINCERITY, SPORTSMANSHIP and COURTESY, taught to them by men who have given up all that is worthwhile in life to devote their entire lives to development of character and manhood in the youth of our country.

The people of Bay St. Louis should realize that the doors of Saint Stanislaus will never be closed to day students, and they should join hands to help build and not destroy through idle gossip an institution which means so much to our community.

PLEASURE LAST

STRICTLY non-essential travel on trains and buses must be eliminated and vacation travel must be rigidly limited. The Office of Defense Transportation directs this earnest warning to everyone, and adds that it is impractical to apply a system of travel priorities. Therefore, it is up to the individual. He can either assert his "privilege" to visit Aunt Hattie and possibly deprive a man of a trip home on furlough—after months of service—or forego the visit in favor of the service man, or the civilian on war business. The same seat cannot render double service. The public must see that the war comes first.

Organized troop movements by rail are proceeding at the rate of over 2,000,000 men a month. They require the constant service of over one-half of Pullman sleeping cars and of nearly one-fourth (over 3,000) of all day coaches.

Soldiers make an average of eight moves by railroad between induction and embarkation for service overseas. It takes 356 passenger cars, as well as 82 baggage cars and over 900 freight cars, made up in 65 trains, to move an infantry division of 15,000 men and their equipment. Movement of an armored division and its vehicles requires 75 trains of from 23 to 45 cars each. Furlough travel on regularly scheduled passenger trains equals approximately the volume of organized troop travel. Both are to increase substantially during the months immediately ahead. No new railroad passenger cars or locomotives, and no new intercity buses, are being constructed.

There are a few of the reasons why civilians are being asked to limit their traveling activities. It is no sacrifice to limit your traveling to necessity if it helps your boy get home on furlough or speeds freight on which his very life may depend.

Hirohito's advisers will be remiss in their duty if they fail to tell the Son of Heaven that he may have to look for another job, probably not in Heaven.

The United States fights for victory, and that is an all-sufficient war aim. We hope to get a better world but that will depend upon what we do after the war has been won.

Regardless of what your neighbors and friends may do, you can buy War Bonds without waiting on the cooperation of anybody.

Italy is about to the point where Mussolini will have an opportunity to display his leadership under fire.

Bay St. Louis Spends Quiet Fourth of July

Despite a vast throng of summer people over for the week end, the Fourth of July, Bay St. Louis spent a sane and safe Fourth with no accidents or excitement.

Picnickers spread lunches on the beaches and under the trees and people enjoyed bathing. Many New Orleansians with only "A" books saved their precious gasoline in order to ride over for the week end on the day and give the children and adult members of the family an opportunity to enjoy the day on the Coast.

Peace officers reported the Fourth of July of 1945 one of the quietest in a decade.

Congressional Sidelights

by Congressman Wm. M. Colmer

While gasoline rationing was originally placed into effect for the purpose of conserving rubber—a source of which had been captured by the Japs early in the war—it is now necessary because of the scarcity of gasoline itself. This war is a scientific war, meaning thereby that the science of war has improved to where machinery of destruction has largely supplanted the manpower destruction. And when the people of this country—particularly those in the eastern states where gasoline must be hauled from the south and west—have to forego the use of their cars because of their inability to obtain gasoline they often do not stop to appreciate this fact. Enormous quantities of gasoline and oil are required to operate our fleet of planes, our tanks, Army motor cars, etc.

For instance, we read in the papers almost every day that a certain number of American and British bombers made a raid on Germany, Italy, or some outlying island in the possession of the Japanese. The following figures will throw some light upon the reason for the scarcity of gasoline: A simple flying fortress, for instance, on a raid from England to Berlin consumes 1600 gallons of gasoline for the round trip. Translated to automobile consumption, that is the equivalent of enough gasoline to fill the tanks of approximately 100 American automobiles. But when we multiply this amount by say 100 flying fortresses making the same raid then we have 10,000 automobile tanks of gasoline. And it will be borne in mind that practically all of the gasoline that is burned in the Royal Air Force machines as well as the American airplanes is furnished by the United States; for it is a known fact that the British are relying upon us for practically all of the gasoline for the RAF. Recently the RAF sent 700 heavy bombers to bomb the Ruhr district in Germany. That meant 36,000 automobile tank loads of gasoline.

To sum the matter up, Major General James Doolittle said that one day's operation by our air forces abroad required approximately 1,100,000 gallons of gasoline. This means that 70,000 automobile tanks could be filled with the gasoline used in one day's operation of the air forces alone.

When the American people realize what their gasoline is being used for, we are sure that they will not gripe over a little personal inconvenience.

57 Hours From Africa

The Army Air-ambulance Service has evacuated 30,000 wounded men from war zones home. From Africa the "wings of mercy" make the trip in 57 hours and set them down gently at a hospital with all the conveniences medical science has devised for their recovery. Planes have comfortable bunks. Some are luxury liners. The men are accompanied by a nurse. Stop-overs are made in South America and Miami and the wounded fed, but each plane has refrigeration and a corner kitchen with facilities for preparation of light foods and fruit juices. The battle zone now is not much more than a first aid station. The mortality rate now is kept to an amazing minimum.

In April, 1942, a 250 bed hospital, with medical facilities and personnel, was flown from St. Louis, Missouri, to Nome, Alaska, in 32 hours, after the hospital there burned. A 750 bed hospital was flown 485 miles

SOMETIMES— ON SOME CALLS— THE LONG DISTANCE OPERATOR WILL SAY:

"Please limit your call to 5 minutes... Others are waiting"

Many Long Distance calls go through about as fast as ever.

But sometimes there's an extra-heavy rush on certain circuits—especially to and from war-busy places.

Whenever that happens, the operator will ask you to limit your Long Distance calls to 5 minutes.

The idea is to give everybody a fair share of the wires. That gets to be more and more important every day.

ACTION HIGHLIGHTS "THE DESPERADOES" A. & G. SUNDAY-MON.

Scott, Ford, Trevor, Keyes
in Color Film

One of the most magnificent dramas of the Old West ever to thunder across the screen, Columbia's "The Desperadoes" opens at the A. & G. Theater Sunday and Monday with stellar cast headed by Randolph Scott, Glenn Ford, Claire Trevor, Evelyn Keyes and Edgar Buchanan. Told in breath taking technicolor the new film is said by Hollywood to be an epic drama of brawling men and tinseltown women, of lawless wickedness and matchless heroism.

Rich with all the color and tumultuousness of the boundless plains, "The Desperadoes" was directed by Charles Vidor from an original story by Max Brand adapted to the screen by Robert Carson. Telling of a killer's fight for law and order, in a town which was not sure it wanted either, "The Desperadoes" has been praised from coast to coast not alone for the stampeding swiftness of its blood-tinting story, but also for its vivid direction and breathless characterizations. Special acclaim has been accorded its glowing, splendor-splashed backgrounds, brought to pulsating life through adept use of the technicolor cameras.

"The Desperadoes" are many in the new film in fact, nearly every member of the cast is one, of one sort or another. Randolph Scott, as newly-elected Sheriff of Red Valley, is a gun-fighter who has successfully managed to reform Glen Ford, as a man-hunted killer, does his best to reform but finds his efforts frustrated until he goes on a gun-roving rampage, to clear the town of some of its "better" citizens. Claire Trevor appears as "The Countess," a charming operator of Red Valley's most popular gambling hall. Guinn "Big Boy" Williams is a bad man, handy with dynamite and with a six-gun, and therefore a good man to have around in a fight. Edgar Buchanan is a conniving rascal and a shootin' fool, when he can find his gun! Porter Hall is the town banker, who robs his own safe too often. Raymond Walburn, appearing as the local judge "hankers for a hangin'" and makes no bones about it.

"The Desperadoes" has been highly praised that the film rates its enthusiastic applause will be proven to Theater audiences on Sunday and Monday nights.

MISSISSIPPIANS KNOW THE TRUTH

I'M VOTING FOR MIKE CONNER BECAUSE HE IS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE PRESENT SOUND FINANCIAL CONDITION OF MISSISSIPPI. WHEN HE BECAME GOVERNOR IN 1932 THERE WAS ONLY $1326 IN THE STATES GENERAL FUND AND UNPAID WARRANTS AND APPROPRIATIONS TOTALLED $7,486,750.

WHEN MIKE SAYS HE WILL YOU CAN DEPEND ON IT!

SURE MIKE IS AND WHEN HE LEFT OFFICE IN 1936 THOSE OLD DEBTS HAD BEEN PAID AND THERE WAS OVER $2,000,000 IN CASH IN THE STATE TREASURY. WHEN MIKE'S ELECTED GOVERNOR THIS TIME, FOLKS WILL KNOW THAT THE STATES LARGE CASH SURPLUS IS IN SAFE HANDS.

MIKE CONNER is the man who inaugurated the present system of budget control and the sound financial program that is responsible for the large cash surplus in the state treasury today. The two administrations since the Conner Administration have enjoyed the fruits of the sound financial program inaugurated while Mike Conner was Governor. Certainly Mississippians all recognize this fact and know that Mike Conner is the man for Mississippi in the four uncertain years ahead.

And Mississippians also know that:

Mike Conner recommended and his administration removed all taxes from the farmers' livestock, horses, mules, hogs, farming equipment, plows and household goods.

Mike Conner recommended and his administration passed the first Homestead Tax Exemption Law in the history of the state.

Mike Conner recommended and his administration repealed the Road Tax Law which had required the annual payment of Five Dollars ($5.00) a year road tax, or work five days each year on the public road.

MacDonald and Young Star
in Mirthful Musical

Brimming over with melody and mirth, "Cairo," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's newest musical film, starring Jeanette MacDonald and Young, is a romantic comedy poking fun at the romantic comedy of spy dramas. Ethel Waters, famed colored actress and singer, has a featured role in "Cairo."

Miss MacDonald has a made-to-order role. She plays Marcia Warren, a famous American movie star who is stranded in Europe when war breaks out. Young is a small-town newspaper reporter sent abroad to cover the war. He meets Miss MacDonald in Cairo, where the singer is giving a concert for British soldiers. The plot is given an amusing twist when Young begins to believe Miss MacDonald is a spy and she thinks the same about him. He is hired as her butler and the hilarious situations come thick and fast. All the time-worn clichés of movie spy dramas are hauled out by Director W. S. Van Dyke II who lets his stars lampoon them for all they are worth.

Expertly Woven Story
Carefully and expertly woven into the gay, frothy story are the musical numbers sung by Miss MacDonald and Miss Waters, who plays her maid. The red-haired star sings the haunting "The Waltz Is Over" and the beautiful title song, "Cairo." Miss Waters pleases swing fans with her renditions of "Buds Won't Bud," and "A Woman Without a Man."

Miss MacDonald and Young are perfect in their light comedy roles while Miss Waters is a joy to watch. The supporting cast includes Reginald Owen, Edward Cinnelli, Mona Barrie, Lionel Atwill, Grant Mitchell, Larry Nunn and Dooley Wilson.

An enjoyable time was spent by the soldiers and officers and citizens reported their conduct excellent, and that the boys had expressed their gratitude for the treat given them.

"God Grants Liberty Only To Those Who Love It
And Are Always Ready to Guard and Defend It"

IN THE face of overwhelming odds, George Washington defended our Liberty on the windswept fields of Valley Forge. Today, as in 1778, that Liberty is under fire. And once again, Americans stand "ready to guard and defend it." The battle ahead is greater than any Washington could have envisioned, but the fighting spirit of Americans hasn't changed. We have just begun to fight....

It's going to cost a lot to win this war, but Victory is a million times cheaper than defeat. To find the billions needed for Victory, every American must do his share by buying U. S. War Bonds and Stamps to the very limit. If every American bought one $18.75 Bond today, $11,487,500,000 worth of guns, tanks, planes and ships could be paid for tomorrow. A small price to pay for such a big reward. More U. S. Bonds have behind them the tremendous resources of this country. Your money will come back with interest, as much as $4 for every $30 when bonds are held to maturity. Our America is now—as it has always been—the best investment in the world. Important Announcement

GOVERNMENT LIFTS RESTRICTIONS ON RE-ROOFING AND RE-SIDING WITH ASBESTOS SHINGLES

Special Ruling Is Made to

Meet Critical War Program

MANY home owners have been postponing re-roofing and repairs to their homes because of their fear that only temporary materials would be available. Many others have obtained the impression that to have such work done would be contrary to the interest of winning the war.

If your home needs re-roofing, if the sidewalls need painting or repair, a special W. P. B. ruling just issued removes the restrictions on the use of asbestos shingles for this purpose. There is no longer any reason for you to postpone having this work done.

Pre-War Quality — Pre-War Prices

Johns-Manville Asbestos Shingles are manufactured to the same fireproof, durable quality standards as before the war. They are available at pre-war prices, too.

If your home needs painting or repair, we recommend J-M Asbestos Siding Shingles. They need no preservative treatment—are fireproof—permanent as stone—and will completely transform the appearance of your home. If you need a new roof, we recommend J-M Asbestos Roofing Shingles. They have the same desirable maintenance-free qualities.

Protect your home for today and for the future. We will be glad to show you samples of the new styles and new textures of these colorful shingles.

Long asbestos spinning fibre is an essential material in many war products. In mining asbestos, for every ton of long asbestos fibre, many tons of shorter fibre must be produced. This shorter fibre must be utilized, and its principal use is in the manufacture of asbestos shingles. Restrictions were therefore lifted to increase the use of asbestos shingles and thereby insure an adequate supply of long asbestos fibre vitally needed for war.

Having Trouble Getting Help?

So are we. Like you, we're faced with the biggest production job in our history. And, like you, we've lost many of the men who used to help us.

Yet that's only part of the story. Every day, on farm and factory, there's something new to test the skill of those running the business. Not only getting help, but to mention a few others—rising costs, making a fair profit, and setting aside reserves for a rainy day. Essentially, these problems are the same for farm and factory, though they may at times differ in size.

But it is that thing called "management," that peculiarly American ability to think through problems no matter how tough, that is helping to see us through today.

It is this skill in management that farmers and businessmen have most in common, a skill which insures the realization of our determination to produce all that's needed for our country today, and tomorrow, to make a fair living through greater service to our fellow Americans. And this protection is found only in a modern ice refrigerator. The thin film of water that is ever-present on your ice provides just the right amount of moisture to keep your meats rich and juicy, and your vegetables dewy fresh! The clean-washed air circulating from your ice keeps foods from exchanging flavors and the constant cold prevents spoilage. This year, when it is so important to cut out waste, you will find that your ICE refrigerator will be your silent partner for food conservation and will save you extra pennies that can go towards your War Bond purchases.

LEE GREVEMBERG HONOR STUDENT ENTERS SERVICE

While he marks time until he receives his license to practice law in the courts of Louisiana, Lee Charles Grevenberg, recent graduate of the School of Law of Loyola University of the South, will devote his time to the service of his country in the armed forces. He has been inducted into service at Camp Beauregard and from there he will be sent to Camp Parris, Texas, for officers' training.

Lee Grevenberg lived in Bay St. Louis during practically his entire life, having attended St. Joseph's Academy and Saint Stanislaus where he completed his High School work in 1938. He was valedictorian of his class at that institution.

Following the completion of his high school work, he matriculated at Loyola University at the age of 15 years. His college career was lengthened by a year because of his desire to qualify for a doctor's degree and was marked by achievements and honor. He was chosen for membership in the Blue Key, selected for inclusion in "Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges," was president of the Student Board of Loyola Law Review, and president of the Senior Class. He was the youngest member to ever be admitted to the Alpha Sigma Nu Fraternity and also had the honor of being elected a president. He received honorable mention for the Archbishop Joseph F. Rummel award as an outstanding Catholic student. Young Grevenberg is a daily communicant.

His record through high school and college is one seldom with parallel, and to St. Joseph's Academy and Saint Stanislaus, notable educational institutions of Bay St. Louis, credit should be given for the educational foundation received by this young man.

Lee was born in New Orleans, but considers Bay St. Louis his home, having lived here with his parents up until the time that he completed high school. He is the son of Mrs. J. J. Grevenberg and the late Mr. Grevenberg who resided in Bay St. Louis for over fourteen years.

The Echo joins with the many friends of Lee Grevenberg and wishes him continued success. May he carry on for his country, and at the end of this great conflict, may he return to civil life and lend his brilliancy to word the making of this world a better place in which to live, and to lend happiness to a mother who has devoted her all for her boys.

Deliver us from evil

Figure It Out Yourself. How can you effectively join in saving all the little children of the world from human slavery, death and injury from the Nazis and Japanese? Put more and more of your pay into war bonds every payday. Your savings will go to war in the form of war equipment and other munitions. How much more should you put into war bonds? The only ones who can answer that are you and your family. It's up to you to decide just how much more you'll do to win the war.

If you were fighting in the Solomons or in Africa or forcing a landing in Europe you'd like to feel that the folks at home were back of you—all the way—and be proud of your family and your friends if you knew they were buying war bonds not at 10 per cent or 15 per cent, but with every cent beyond that which they need for necessities.
